

JOB SAFETY ANALYSIS

Safety Information for Seawolf Underwater Robotics Engineering

S.U.R.E.

PORT CITIES OF THE FUTURE

TASK	HAZARDS	CONTROLS
1. Commerce	Transporting beacons and returning them to the surface.	Mindful of surroundings when removing objects from the water.
2. Entertainment	Transporting the old fountain to the surface.	Mindful of surroundings when removing objects from the water.
3. Health	Handling contaminated soil samples, handling clams	Staying aware of contaminants, careful treatment of wildlife.
4. Safety	Identifying the high risk contaminated container.	Staying aware of contaminants within container.
5. General	Slippery surfaces, carrying company property, electrical components.	S.U.R.E. members are required to wear tennis shoes when poolside.
Required Training:	Required Personal Protective Equipment (PPE): Closed-toed shoes, safety glasses

Other Information:

Contributors:

Created:

JSA Library Number:

See <https://www.marinetech.org> for more information on the international MATE competition

Colby Phillips – Safety Manager

May, 2017

05262017

For more information about this JSA, contact Colby Phillips – Safety Manager, S.U.R.E. ● colinseawolves@gmail.com.