

JOB SAFETY ANALYSIS

Safety Information for Seawolf Underwater Robotics Engineering

S.U.R.E.

JET CITY: AIRCRAFT, EARTHQUAKES AND ENERGY

TASK	HAZARDS	CONTROLS
1. Aircraft	Removing airplane engines from the water.	Mindful of surroundings when removing objects from the water.
2. Aircraft	Transporting debris from one location to another	Mindful of surroundings when removing objects from the water.
3. Energy	Install tidal turbines.	Mindful of surroundings and tidal currents.
4. Earthquakes	Powering the OBS	Mindful of surroundings and open wires.
5. General	Slippery surfaces, carrying company property, electrical components.	S.U.R.E. members are required to wear tennis shoes when poolside.
Required Training:	Required Personal Protective Equipment (PPE): Closed-toed shoes, safety glasses

Other Information:

Contributors:

Created:

JSA Library Number:

See <https://www.marinetech.org> for more information on the international MATE competition

Erin Lowe – Safety Manager

May, 2018

05/24/2018

For more information about this JSA, contact Erin Lowe – Safety Manager, S.U.R.E. ● colinseawolves@gmail.com.