

Crusader Robotics

Brother Rice High School, Chicago, IL

“Crusader Robotics... A Crusade for a Better Tomorrow”

Job Safety Analysis

JOB TYPES	POTENTIAL HAZARDS	SAFE JOB PROCEDURES
Electrical ROV Work	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Cuts• Electrocutation• Burns• Eye injuries• Fire	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Proper tools - wire cutters - wire strippers• Anderson power plugs• Proper glasses• Proper clothing• No flammable objects in the area• No horse play• Proper Safety gloves• Remove all flammable objects from the area

Crusader Robotics

Brother Rice High School, Chicago, IL

“Crusader Robotics... A Crusade for a Better Tomorrow”

Mechanical ROV Work

- Soldering iron - sever burns sharp edges, and splatter
- PVC cutters - cutting off limbs, puncturing blood vessels
- Drill - cuts and burns
- Hot glue gun - mild burns
- Scissors - cuts
- Utility knives - cuts, puncturing blood vessels
- Wire cutters - cuts
- Staplers - puncturing skin, bleeding
- Zip ties - lost of blood flow
- Saw - dust from pvc that can be inhaled/ in eyes
- Batteries - have potential to leak or explode, harming individuals
- Flammables near heat catching objects
- Clean tools and maintain a safe workspace.
- Wear protective gear, including goggles, gloves, closed- toe shoes, etc.
- Make sure no tools are still out and that they are placed in proper location.
- Communicate with team members and avoid horseplay.
- Train beginners how to use tools at beginning of the year.
- Store batteries correctly and handle them carefully on designated charging station.
- Keep flammables away from other heat sources.

Crusader Robotics

Brother Rice High School, Chicago, IL

“Crusader Robotics... A Crusade for a Better Tomorrow”

ROV Operation in Water/Pool

- Slip and fall
- Tripping on wires
- Electrical hazards
- Drowning
- Cuts from ROV
- Moving of ROV
- Proper footwear
- Keep pool deck neat
- Tape down
- GFCI protected outlets
- On duty lifeguards
- Proper lifeguard equipment
- Vigilance
- Proper lifting technique
- Mounted power strip
- Shrouding